GUIDANCE DOCUMENT: DESIGNING A PROGRAM EVALUATION

The CFP Board Council on Education has developed a set of CE Quality Standards for various steps of the program development process. Designing a Program Evaluation to solicit feedback from participants is an important step in the process. This feedback will provide valuable information about content and delivery satisfaction and be the basis for making any adjustments in future presentations.

Keep It Short; Keep It Simple

A properly designed program evaluation should take no more than three minutes to complete and require minimal thinking time or writing. Here are a few tricks to ensure both:

- Pre-populate program title, date, and instructor name
- Have participants respond to short positive statements or questions
- Ensure statements and questions are clearly relevant to their experience. ‘What’s In It for Me?’ (WIIFM)
- Don’t bother asking questions about things you cannot control or already know the answer to (e.g. room size or set-up, room temperature, quality of refreshments)
- Minimize the use of open-ended questions that require writing out a response
- Provide response options with the ability to add “Other” when asking for an opinion

Build Your Evaluation

To keep your evaluation short and simple, consider incorporating 5-7 statements using a Likert Scale to measure response. Add 2-3 easy-to-answer questions at the end. Begin building following these 3 steps:

Step 1: Select your level of measurement – do you want to:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Assess Agreement</th>
<th>Rate Satisfaction</th>
<th>Assign a Point Value</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Strongly Agree</td>
<td>Very Satisfied</td>
<td>5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Agree</td>
<td>Satisfied</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Neither Agree nor Disagree</td>
<td>Neutral</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Disagree</td>
<td>Dissatisfied</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Strongly Disagree</td>
<td>Very Dissatisfied</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Step 2: Add 6-8 statements (here are some examples):

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Program Design &amp; Delivery:</th>
<th>The program prepared me to meet the learning objectives</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Content was well organized and presented</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Content was relevant and will be helpful in my daily work</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The amount of content shared was just enough for me to absorb</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The activities incorporated into the program will help me apply what I’ve learned</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The program was conducted at a good pace</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The resources (handouts) provided will be extremely helpful</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The length of the program was just right to adequately cover the content</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Overall, I’d rate this program Good to Excellent</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Step 3: Add a few additional questions (here are some examples):

- Were all of your questions answered? Yes or No
  If No, what question(s) did you not have a chance to ask?
- Which part of the program did you find the most valuable? (Check all that apply)
  ___ Group discussion  ___ Group activities
  ___ Case Studies  ___ Use of relevant examples
  ___ Other ________________________________
- How many stars would you give this program? ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

  [Provide a checklist of 4-7 topics for participants to choose from; end by adding Other:]
- Additional comments or feedback (open-ended question)
