

CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER BOARD OF STANDARDS, INC.

Leo G. Rydzewski, Esq.
General Counsel

Leo G. Rydzewski has been General Counsel since January 2015.

Among his responsibilities, Mr. Rydzewski oversees the enforcement of CFP Board's Standards of Professional Conduct. Mr. Rydzewski also recently worked with CFP Board's Commission on Standards to develop the revised Code of Ethics and Standards of Conduct, which was announced on March 29, 2018 and will become effective on October 1, 2019.

Prior to joining CFP Board, Mr. Rydzewski was a partner in the Washington, D.C. office of the global law firm Holland & Knight LLP. Prior to joining Holland & Knight, Mr. Rydzewski served as a law clerk to U.S. District Court Judge Federico A. Moreno, in the Southern District of Florida.

He received his Juris Doctor from Florida State University College of Law, where he graduated summa cum laude, and a Bachelor of Arts degree in economics from Georgetown University.

ABOUT CFP BOARD

Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. is the professional body for personal financial planners in the U.S. CFP Board sets standards for financial planning and administers the prestigious CFP® certification – one of the most respected certifications in financial services – so that the public has access to and benefits from competent and ethical financial planning. CFP Board, along with its Center for Financial Planning, is committed to increasing the public's awareness of CFP® certification and access to a diverse, ethical and competent financial planning workforce. Widely recognized by firms as the standard for financial planning, CFP® certification is held by more than 83,000 people in the United States.